

Tartars to Present Annual Variety Show This Week End

Thirty-two students and the 70-voice Tartar Choir will be featured in the Torrance High School 13th Annual Variety Show to be held in the Torrance High School Auditorium on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 5th and 6th, at 8 p.m.

The Variety Show is a two-act program full of musical entertainment supplemented with modern interpretative dancing. The acts are divided into six scenes with the first scene setting the stage. The "Sorcerer's Brew" is an interesting one combining the musical and dancing talents of Noel Shire, Linda Hofer, Marilyn Holcomb, Yvonne Graham, Martha Goodrow, Karen Henderson, Sharon Clark, Marcella

Cook, Roxanne Barnard, Judy McTee, and Trudy Church.

THE NEXT scene is "The Pad," a take-off on the beatniks. Portraying the beatniks are Jim Pritchard, Pat King, Bob Jones, Linda Williams, Diana Dyck, Denise Hunter, and Carolyn Dyck. The "Garden" provides a delightful change of pace and includes among others the artistic abilities of Nancy Hornbeck, Sue Larson, Judy Minor, and Charlotte McComas.

"Wester Skies" introduces the second act and is the first scene in which the seventy voice Tartar Choir will sing. Specialty numbers of Carol

'Little Red Schoolhouse' To Be Discussed by TEAC

"The Little Red Schoolhouse" (or multigrade program) which started at Walteria School five years ago, will be the subject of discussion at the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee meeting next Monday noon at the Masonic Lodge, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

Persons attending will get latest reports on the program, which has spread to several other schools in Torrance and other parts of the country. It involves placing children from several different grade levels in the same room for Taking part in the discussions will be Assistant Superintendent Albert Posner; Donald F. Mullaney, and Roland Petratt, principals of schools which have the program; and Mrs. Shirley Cullum and R. A. Phelps, teachers at Walteria and Steele Schools respectively.

Dr. J. H. Hull, Superintendent S. L. Waldrip will report on the current school building program, and music will be furnished by a Torrance High choral group directed by Roger Axworthy.

Thomasian Names Chairmen for 46th AD Democratic Convention

Committee assignments for the 46th Assembly District Nominating Convention scheduled for Feb. 19 have been announced by Attorney Harold Thomasian, general chairman of the convention.

Milo Schadel of Inglewood has been named chairman of the important credentials committee. Members of the committee will be presidents of Democratic clubs in the district.

Other committee chairmen include Connie Anastassiou, 211 Paseo de Granada, arrangements; Ed Fry, Puoya del Rey, rules; Lee Goss, Rolling Hills, elections; Frank Visca, Manhattan Beach, public notices; and Al Green, San Pedro, resolutions.

Harbor Area Unions to Gather Today

The regular monthly luncheon meeting of the Harbor Area Unions of the Los Angeles County Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO, will be held today at the Don Hotel in Wilmington.

The convention will be held at the UAW Hall, 5250 W. Imperial Hwy., Inglewood, beginning at 7:30 on Feb. 19. Selection of a nominee to seek election to the Assembly from the 46th District will highlight the convention agenda. Two men, Harold Orr and Dr. Roy Sanderson, have indicated a willingness to be candidates, according to Democratic leaders.

Guest speaker will be Anne L. Gould, Co-ordinator, University of California, who's subject will be the spring program of liberal arts for labor and the classes that will be held in the Harbor Area.

LT Governor Glenn Anderson will be keynote speaker at the session.

The Harbor Area COPE has been designated to include the 17th and 18th Congressional Districts and includes the 46th, 67th, 68th and 70th Assembly Districts. The meeting will be under the chairmanship of Ben Scott, secretary-treasurer Retail Clerks Union Local 905 and Federation vice president.
